
PHYSICS

Year 12

Topics Studied:

A level Physics Year 1. A level physics contains five modules Skills in A level physics, Particles and radiation, Waves and optics, Mechanics and materials and Electricity

Exam Board:

AQA

Assessment structure:

There is no formal assessment for year 12. Students will be assessed internally. There is no coursework but pupils must complete 6 required practicals in year 12.

Subject specific websites to support revision and independent learning:

Cyber Physics.Co.Uk – Online tool which provides a subject overview, interactive activities and questions.

S-cool - Choose an activity, revise it, test it and remember it! S-cool includes overviews, exam style questions, multiple choice questions and revision summaries.

The Student room- Pupils share their experiences of topics and discuss ways to answer questions. Past exam papers are also shared and discussed amongst students.

Recommended subject guides:

Past exam paper pack- Available from the Physics department.

AS-Level Physics AQA A Complete Revision & Practice by CGP – Available from, Ebay, Amazon, WH smith, Waterstones and the physics department in school.

Additional Information:

Revision classes take place during lunchtimes and after school. Information regarding when these classes are run is announced in the daily bulletin. Also ask your classroom teachers.