

Home study – year 10

French

You should be revising for your forthcoming end of year exams. You should have revision materials at home, but you can also use your active learn log ins to revise from the digital book. Instead of looking for a task, go onto the library and choose either foundation or higher materials.

German

You should be revising for your forthcoming end of year exams. You should have revision materials at home, but can also use memrise and Kerboodle as further practise.
