

Law

Year 12

Topics studied:

Paper 1: Crime: Fatal offences, non-fatal offences, Property offences, defences and the theory of criminal law. This is taught alongside the English Legal System.

Paper 3: Contract: Formation of a contract and terms.

Paper 1 is predominantly delivered during Year 12 in the autumn and spring terms, with elements of Paper 3 being delivered during the summer term. There will be opportunity for examination practice throughout the course.

Examination board:

Year 12 students follow the AQA GCE in Law specification.

Subject specific websites to support revision and independent learning:

www.e-lawresources.co.uk

www.sixthformlaw.info

www.e-lawstudent.com

www.bbc.co.uk

www.aqa.co.uk

Recommended subject guide:

AQA A level Law Year 1. Martin Price and Jacqueline Martin. ISBN: 9781510401648

Additional Information:

Students will be set homework tasks which enhance their learning of the topics being studied. They will complete one milestone assessment per teacher each half term.

Year 13

Topics studied:

Paper 3: Contract Law completion to include vitiating factors, discharge of contract and remedies.

Paper 2: Tort: Liability in negligence for physical injury, economic loss, nuisance, defences, remedies. Further elements of the English Legal System will also be taught.

Paper 3 is predominantly delivered in the autumn term, with Paper 2 predominantly delivered in the spring term. There should be an opportunity for revision and final examination practice in the summer term before the final examinations in June.

Examination board:

Year 13 students follow the AQA GCE in Law specification.

Assessment structure:

Paper 1: 33% of A level externally assessed unit.

Paper 2: 33% of A level externally assessed unit.

Paper 3: 33% of A level externally assessed unit.

There is no controlled assessment or coursework.

Subject specific websites to support revision and independent learning:

www.e-lawresources.co.uk

www.sixthformlaw.info

www.e-lawstudent.com

www.bbc.co.uk

www.aqa.co.uk

Recommended subject guide:

- AQA A Level Law Year 2 TBC

Additional Information:

Students will be set homework tasks which enhance their learning of the topics being studied. They will complete one milestone assessment per teacher each half term.